A Gaze of Her Own: Women in Japanese Art

May 8, 2008 - October 12, 2008

Wed. 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Thur. - Sun. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art

1430 Johnson Lane, University of Oregon Campus · Eugene

As many of the works in this installation illustrate, women have served as important subjects in the visual arts, especially for woodblock print artists. Less commonly, though nonetheless importantly, women also on occasion rose to prominence as artists themselves. Indeed, the multi-talented Otagaki Rengetsu, several of whose ceramics are on view, is one of the best known artists of her generation.

May 8, 2008 - July 13, 2008

Wed. 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Thur. - Sun. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art

1430 Johnson Lane, University of Oregon campus · Eugene

Examines the artist's use of the camera as a mediating device and his placement of the viewer in the position of voyeur. Exhibited works from the Eye and Camera series consider Piper's fragmentation of the female form through the combination of photography, collage and silkscreen. His images present the female body as an emblem, removing all individuality and rendering it an object of display.

BRING Gallery

4446 Franklin Blvd · Glenwood

BRING Gallery proudly presents the work of artist John Paul Gardner. Working with large scale drawings and living grass, Gardner creates an installation landscape that explores natural and artificial forms from a human perspective. By examining, reinterpreting and questioning relationships between our natural and built environments, Gardner's installations challenge the lines between interior and exterior space. The work touches on themes of human control, idealized beauty and the relationship between architecture and the natural world, ultimately striving to answer: what is nature?

Cottage Theatre

700 Village Dr · Cottage Grove

A play you don't want to miss! When Elwood P. Dowd starts to introduce his imaginary friend, Harvey, a six-and-a-half-foot rabbit, to guests at a society party, his sister, Veta, has seen as much of his eccentric behavior as she can tolerate. She decides to have him committed to a sanitarium to spare her daughter, Myrtle Mae, and their family from future embarrassment. Problems arise, however, when Veta explains to doctors that years of living with Elwood's hallucination have caused her to see Harvey also!
